Idaho Industrial Commission

STRATEGIC PLAN

VISION

To be the premier administrator of workers' compensation and crime victims' programs in the nation.

MISSION

To impartially and efficiently administer the Idaho Workers' Compensation Law in a manner that ensures compliance with insurance requirements, prompt and accurate benefit payments, equitable judicial review and dispute resolution, and quality vocational rehabilitation services for injured workers.

To assist innocent victims of crime recover from the traumatic effects of crime by providing financial assistance and community education in accordance with state and federal law.

GUIDING PRINCIPLES

- Quality Customer Service
- Impartiality
- Accessible Services
- Ethical Practices and Behavior
- Cost Effective and Efficient Operations

KEY EXTERNAL FACTORS

- Economic conditions of Idaho's business industry can cause the Commission's revenues to rapidly increase or decrease requiring constant adjustments and changes in agency operations.
- Special interest groups representing the many facets of workers' compensation can significantly impact the functions of the Idaho Industrial Commission.
- Rapidly increasing population and urbanization, and expanding culturally diverse communities has resulted in a significantly greater need for Commission services.
- The escalating costs and complexity of medical services for workers' compensation injuries impacts the workers' compensation system and requires ongoing adjustment to the medical fee schedule administered by the Commission.
- The aging workforce has a two-prong impact on Commission operations: First, it requires the need for ongoing succession planning within the agency, and second, the older workforce is statistically more prone to incur more frequent and costly workers' compensation claims.
- Budgetary constraints proposed by the federal government can result in state and federal funding levels becoming insufficient to meet the increased demand for crime victim services.
